Competitive Coding Club Constitution

1   Name

The club's name is the Competitive Coding Club.

2   Objectives

What does the group represent?
The group represents those interested in competitive programming, and those who partake in various programming competitions.

What is the purpose of the group?
The purpose is to provide resources for competitive programmers at UPEI and to encourage more students to partake in programming competitions.

What would the group like to achieve?
The goal is to increase participation and improve results at various competitions that UPEI partakes in, such as the International Collegiate Programming Contest.

3   Membership

4   Activities

5   Executive

5.1   Executive Duties

5.2   Appointments

5.3   Vacancies and Removals

6   Meetings

7   Finance

8   Amendments